Date : Wednesday 14/06/2023

1. Venues: Bhairoba Nala, and Uruli Devachi

2. Description of the activity: Like every year , a devotional event Ashadhi Wari was celebrated by rendering services to Warkaris by the volunteers of NSS unit of college as well staff and students of BPH /MPH. Multiple activities were organized at two different destinations on the path of Wari /procession en route Pandharpur.. One of the major contributions was volunteering services for road safety, traffic control and discipline maintenance with police force of Wanwadi police chowki. The local police recruited, trained the pharmacy students specially for deployment at strategic locations in the city and surrounding areas witnessing the actual passing by of the Warkaris. NSS volunteers contributed their role as "Police Mitra" very well on allotted places.

The second part involved volunteering services at health check -up camp organized by the JSPM Group of Institutions. Moreover, the students distributed food articles, medicines and cloth bags at Uruli Devachi. The students counseled warkaries about the safe use of medicines provided , following cleanliness, hygiene and specific precautions for prevention of infectious diseases in rainy season to be followed.

Outcome of the activity: The volunteers witnessed ethos and togetherness without barriers of caste, creed and religion of this spiritual journey. They participated with sense of service and duty to mankind as a means of offering prayers to the Lord through these extension and outreach activities. It was a real life experience for them enriching their lives socially.
